

4) Brief outline of project

Research into the current literature on the ebola virus, looking at:
- how the virus started
- how the virus spreads
- how the virus affects the rich and
- potential treatments

5) Dates when the project will be performed

September 2014 - December 2014

6) Where is the research going to be performed (e.g. hospital / ward, laboratory / building)

No active clinical research - review of literature only

If full submission made to the Lothian Health Ethics of Research Committee

If submission made to the University of Edinburgh Committee on use of Student Volunteers